The vital process of delegate selection ensures that our Tennessee Delegation represents the many diverse Democratic voters of Tennessee. Women and men from all communities: people of color, voters with disabilities, the LGBT community, youth, workers, and others.

BE A PART OF IT

HOW IT WORKS

The National Democratic Convention is operated by the DNC, the Democratic National Committee. Under their authority, the Convention selects nominees for President and Vice-President and adopts the Democratic Party platform. Each state sends a Delegation of representative Democrats to the National Democratic Convention, and with the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee's guidance, Tennessee has adopted a Delegate Selection Plan that defines how our delegates are chosen. This plan is available at tndp.org along with other materials that explain in detail the Rules and Bylaws of the DNC, The Call to Convention, and the Selection Rules of the DNC.

Democrats wishing to become congressional district delegates must register to vote by Feb 3, 2020 and file a Declaration of Candidacy and Presidential Pledge of Support form with the TNDP office by Feb 20, 2020. Forms will be available at tndp.org or the TNDP office, 319 Plus Park Blvd, Suite 202, Nashville, TN 37217 beginning Jan 6, 2020.

US CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT DELEGATES

Each Congressional District will elect DNC Convention Delegates. The number of Delegates from each district varies based on the Democratic voting history of each district. The map below indicates how many delegates will be elected at the Congressional District Conventions on March 21, 2020, Noon Central, 1pm Eastern. To vote at the Congressional Convention, attend your County Convention on March 7, 2020. Go to tndp.org/county-parties to contact your local Democratic Party and get involved!
